Platoro is an early stage precious and base metals exploration and development company engaged in the business of mineral exploration in the western United States with special emphasis on the state of Nevada. The Company presently has (i) an option to acquire a 100% undivided interest in various claims in Nevada, commonly known as the “Wildhorse Project” which is considered the Company’s only material property; (ii) a right of first refusal on various other mineral claims in Pershing, Humboldt and Eureka Counties in Nevada (the “ROFR Properties”); and (iii) claims that it owns in Mineral and Esmeralda County Nevada. See the Company’s Prospectus as filed on www.sedar.com and CNSX’s Disclosure Hall.

2. On September 4, 2009, the Company closed a Subscription and Distribution Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Copper Ridge Explorations Inc., (TSX-V: KRX) (“Copper Ridge”) pursuant to which the Company acquired 100,000,000 Copper Ridge common shares (representing 56% of the outstanding common shares) for $3,000,000. Copper Ridge holds a portfolio of diversified mineral resource properties including base metals, precious metals, uranium and tungsten in Alaska, Yukon, and British Columbia. See the Company’s press release of May 29, 2009 for additional details on the properties.

The Company plans to distribute the Copper Ridge shares received to its shareholders on a pro-rata basis following completion of the consolidation of Copper Ridge's share capital on the basis of one (1) new share for each fifteen (15) old shares announced

September 30, 2009. The distribution is anticipated to be effected following completion of the share consolidation (October 28, 2009) and receipt of all required regulatory approvals.

On March 30, 2009 the Company closed a Business Combination Agreement with Zacoro Metals Corp. (“Zacoro”), a private Ontario corporation, pursuant to which a total of 36,562,937 shares of Platoro were reserved for issuance to Zacoro’s shareholders. 17. Resource exploration and development is a speculative business, characterized by a number of significant risks including, among other things, unprofitable efforts resulting not only from the failure to discover mineral deposits but also from finding mineral deposits that, though present, are insufficient in quantity and quality to return a profit from production.

All of the claims to which the Company has a right to acquire an interest are in the exploration planning stage only and are without a known body of commercial ore. Development of the subject mineral properties would follow only if during the exploration program being conducted, sufficient favourable results are obtained. The business of exploration for minerals and mining involves a high degree of risk. Few properties that are explored are ultimately developed into producing mines.

There is no assurance that the Company's mineral exploration and development activities will result in any discoveries of commercial bodies of ore. The long-term profitability of the Corporation's operations will in part be directly related to the costs and success of its exploration programs, which may be affected by a number of factors.

In the absence of cash flow from operations, the Company will need to rely on either joint venture partners or on capital markets to fund its exploration in order to achieve its exploration targets.

As a result of the business combination with Zacoro, a new Board of Directors was appointed. There is no assurance that the Company's present business and plans to develop its current properties will be continued by the new Board.
